GENERAL PRICE LIST

These prices are effective as of December 1, 2024 and are subject to change without notice.

The goods and services shown below are those we can provide to our customers. You may choose only the items you desire. However, any funeral arrangements you select will include a charge for our basic services and overhead. If legal or other requirements mean you must buy any items you did not specifically ask for, we will explain the reason in writing on the statement we provide describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

This List does not include prices for certain items that you may ask us to buy for you, such as cemetery or crematory services, flowers or newspaper notices. The prices for these items will be shown on your bill or the statement describing the funeral goods and services you selected.

This List is in compliance with the regulations set forth by the Federal Trade Commission. The FTC doesn't govern our prices. Prices have been computed by Maberry Funeral Home, Inc. in accordance with general accepted practices.

If there is a special financial need, please discuss it with our funeral director.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you. Please feel free to ask any questions.

Certain funeral services may be provided off premises by other funeral service providers.

Payment Policy

December 1, 2024

Payment Options

The following payment options are available to you in settling your account.

Option 1:

Payment in full by cash, check, or credit card upon completion of the arrangement conference.

Option 2:

We will honor an insurance assignment which can be processed upon completion of the arrangement conference. We will need the insurance policy, a certified copy of the death certificate, and an assignment that will be accepted by the insurance company. Any charges not covered by the policy will need to be addressed at the arrangement conference. The policy can be used as payment for the funeral expenses. Insurance assignment is acceptable if the following criteria are met:

- The policy death benefit proceeds are verified by us, and all documentation is signed preceding the publication of the funeral arrangements.
- The policy is assignable and payable directly to the funeral home.
- The policy must be non-contestable (if in the contestable period the policy will not be accepted as a form of payment).

If the insurance company does not pay the balance of the statement, the person signing the Statement of Goods and Services is responsible for paying the full amount.

Option 3:

We will honor pre-arranged funeral insurance which has been irrevocably assigned to Maberry Funeral Home, Inc.

The person signing the Statement of Goods and Services at the time of arrangements will be responsible for all costs related to any collection of the account including attorney's fees in the amount of thirty-three and one-third percent (33.3%) of the outstanding balance at the time a collection attorney contacts you, which you hereby agree is reasonable. You further agree to pay an unanticipated late payment fee at the rate of one and one-half percent (1 ½%) per month on any amount due Maberry Funeral Home, Inc., which remain unpaid thirty (30) days after its due date.
